Description: Scenes of Algiers, Corsica, and the port cities of Saint Tropez and Toulon in southern France. Footage includes battle ships in the Bay of Algiers and in the port of Saint Tropez; the Notre Dame d’Afrique (Our Lady of Africa), a Roman Catholic Church built by French colonists in Algiers in 1872; a child and two adults on a cliff watching what appears to be a damaged warship in the Bay of Algiers; US servicemen in front of the Hotel Napoleon Bonaparte; a German minefield, most likely in France; a sign with skull and cross bones and the words “Achtung Minen” (Warning Mines) next to a field barricaded by barbed wire; and a downed aircraft in a field.

Country of Origin:
United States

Format: Moving Image

Aspect Ratio: 1.33:1

Color: color

Soundtrack: silent

Hoover ID: 77074_f_0010694

Record Number: 77074.3

Notes: DVD access copy available in reading room.

Collection Guide: https://oac.cdlib.org/findaid/ark:/13030/kt9d5nf29h

Rights: Used with permission. This copy is provided for educational and research purposes only. No publication, further reproduction, or reuse of copies, beyond fair use, may be made without the express written permission of the copyright owner.